

Dickens Yard

Some of the units in published plans are wanting in daylight and general appeal. An example (243) is shown below. This is one of the worst units on the north side. The existence of such units depresses the appeal of the whole site.

